

Accommodations

This year's conference will be held at the beautiful La Fonda hotel. The entire hotel has been reserved for this conference. A landmark on Santa Fe's historic Plaza, La Fonda is a favorite of visitors and locals alike. Just steps from museums, galleries, shops and restaurants, the "grande dame" of Santa Fe hotels is loved for its award-winning pueblo-style Spanish architecture and décor and is a showcase of the work of local artisans. While admiring the art and history, guests also appreciate thoroughly modern amenities, including:

La Fonda's 5th floor Bell Tower Bar

- High-speed wireless Internet access
- Covered parking
- Nightly turndown service
- Room Service
- Valet laundry
- Child care services available
- Business center
- Gift shop/Newsstand
- The Lobby Shops at La Fonda

Our state-of-the-art fitness center and spa features an outdoor hot tub and heated swimming pool, massage room, an exercise room and men's and women's steam rooms and showers.

At the heart of La Fonda is La Plazuela, a beautiful enclosed courtyard restaurant featuring an award-winning culinary team and interesting, contemporary Nuevo Latino cuisine as well as New Mexican favorites.

La Plazuela's culinary team uses only fresh, locally grown ingredients and selects the finest in fish, poultry and beef. It is open daily for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

La Plazuela restaurant

La Fonda on the Plaza

Corporate Sponsorships

The CTA offers our Corporate Sponsors a high level of association, visibility, and impact at a low cost. We have four levels of sponsorship: Platinum, Gold, Silver, and Bronze. Membership premiums include:

- Visibility in quarterly and annual conference publications
- Conference fees for exhibitors
- A booth in the exhibit area
- A listing on our website with a link to your corporate website
- Participation allowing your company to gain exposure and valued contacts

Platinum, Gold and Silver categories carry additional benefits. For more information on rates and how to join us as a CTA Sponsor, please visit www.correctionstech.org. Or, you can contact Conference Management Solutions at dwright@nettally.com or John Ward, CTA President.

Seventh Annual Corrections Technology Association Conference

Protecting Our Most Vulnerable Through Innovative Technology

April 30 – May 3, 2006
LaFonda on the Plaza
Santa Fe, New Mexico

Conference Agenda

Keynote Address

Hon. Bill Richardson,
Governor of the State of New Mexico

Plenary Sessions

- The Looming Worldwide Pandemic: The vital role of information technology for Corrections' response to the crises
- The Jessica Lundsford Act: Mandated sharing of information and tracking of sex offenders in the State of Florida
- Demonstration of SEARCH'S Justice Information Exchange Model (JIEM)
- State and County Updates on Use of Technology

IT Management Track

- Strategy for Preserving Knowledge and Skill Sets in an Era of Retirements, Attrition and the "Gen-X"
- Using Business Intelligence tools to monitor/measure program outcomes at the Oregon DOC
- System Life Cycle Strategy: Risk Management Techniques to Acquire, Operate, and Retire Technology
- Technology Convergence: Integration for Improved Safety and Intellegence
- Compliance with Information Technology Infrastructure Library (ITIL) Mandates
- Allowing/Restricting Inmate Use of Computers Using State of the Art Networking and Security Layers at the Nebraska DOC

Innovative Technologies Track

- A New Approach for Interactive and Efficient Tracking of Probationers in Colorado
- The Latest in Victim Notification and Integrated Justice Exchange
- Application of Technology to Effectively Supervise the Cyber Offender in the State of New Mexico
- Technology and Operational Issues of Implementing GPS Monitoring of Sex Offenders
- Integrating Output Management Technology into Ohio DOC Processes for Efficient Work Flow and Effective Content Management
- Correctional Applications of GIS, GPS, and RFID Technology
- Challenges and Lessons Learned in Implementing a Comprehensive Electronic Medical Records System at Nebraska DOC
- Implementing Comprehensive Manufacturing and Financial Management for Prison Industries

Collaboration Track

- Use of Open and Shared Source Software in Correctional Settings
- Legal and Technical Challenges of Banking on Open Source
- A National Open Source Initiative for Public Safety Agencies
- Electronic Sharing and Collaboration in the Canadian Criminal Justice Community
- Evaluation and Implementation of Electronic Monitoring Technology: A Partnership Between New Mexico DOC and National Institute of Justice
- Building a Partnership Between IT and Operational Units in Corrections
- Global Justice XML Data Model (JXDM) Workshop

CTA Facts

The Mission of the Association is to provide an association of and a forum for technology executives serving the corrections field to address challenges, promote information sharing, and advise on emerging technologies affecting corrections.

The Goals of the Association are to:

- Be the leading forum for addressing the opportunities, implications, and challenges for improving correctional operations through the use of information technology and other operational technologies.
- Provide a vehicle to identify current, new, and emerging technologies as a means to advise and promote sharing of information throughout the corrections community.
- Provide a forum for exchange of information, professional experiences, and knowledge related to the application of technology in corrections.

NOTE: Sponsor fees do not pay for meals for Conference attendees. Registration fees cover 100% of attendee breakfast, lunch and break expenses and are not subsidized by vendor participation. For a breakdown of costs, contact John Daugherty, CTA Treasurer at jdaugherty@state.mt.us.

How to Register – There are two ways you can register for this conference:

1. Go to the Corrections Technology Association website, www.correctionstech.org/2006Conference, to register online.
2. Contact Diana Wright, Event Coordinator, at dwright@nettally.com or (850) 222-2383.

If you have questions about the conference or need assistance with the registration, you can also contact John Ward at ward.john@doc.state.sc.us or (803) 896-2100.